Simcoe County Suicide Awareness Council

JOIN US AS A SUPPORTING PARTNER

Support Partner Opportunities

If you, your community group, or business shares a passion for mental health advocacy and community support, consider partnering with the Simcoe County Suicide Awareness Council. Our council offers annual partner support and corporate sponsorships options.

Partner support and corporate sponsorship contributions allow us to meet our mission to provide a culture of hope and support through community events and initiatives in Simcoe County, Ontario and surrounding areas.

We accomplish this through:

- Events that focus on bringing awareness, support, and education to our community.
- Engagement with local organizations and youth.
- Funding of evidence-based suicide prevention training and peer support groups.

By becoming a partner, you can:

- Align your mission with promoting positive mental well-being in our region.
- Showcase your organization as a champion of mental health.
- Publicly demonstrate your dedication to enhancing the quality of life in our community by supporting individuals in need and fostering community connections.
- Elevate the visibility of your organization.
- Gain sponsor recognition on our website and social media platforms.
- Contribute a meaningful gift that will leave a lasting impact on the community.
